

F. Status of Women in Science (2017)

F1

F2

F3

F4

F5

F6

F10

F11

F12

F13

F. Status of Women in Science (2017)

Project Brief: As an extension on the Research theme Women Empowerment: Key to Sustainable Societies, topical study on Status of Women in Science, on pan India basis was conducted. The research study involved a national level survey of more than 1500 scientists and students of science covering 20 states in India and Delhi NCT. The research team consisting of in-house research assistants and 25 post graduate and undergraduate student research interns from several reputed universities and colleges of Kolkata viz. Presidency University, University of Calcutta, University of Kalyani, Bethune College and other were involved in data collection, processing and data analysis and preparation of the report. This project was funded by NITI AAYOG and conducted at C-DRAṢṬĀ.

F. Status of Woman in Science	Index No.	DESCRIPTION
	F1	Dr. Rajlakshmi Mallik with the then In house Researchers/ Research Team at C-DRAṢṬĀ posing for a Group photo during the Status of Woman in Science Project.
	F2 to F4	Dr. Rajlakshmi Mallik taking group photos with the Team C-DRAṢṬĀ consisting of in-house Researchers as well as the Research Interns from Calcutta University working for the project Status of Woman in Science Project.
	F5	Researchers and multi tasking staff coming together to pose for a group photo.
	F6	Research intern during a training session posing for a group photo.
	F7	Researcher Sidharth Mitra doing data analysis of the project Status of Woman in Science Project.
	F8 to F12	Entire Research Team consisting of Head Researcher Dr. Rajlakshmi Mallik, the In House Researchers, the Team of Research interns and the multi tasking staff.